IMA for HOMESCHOOLED Children

IMA Homeschooler's Martial Arts programs are uniquely designed to fit the Home school Family needs, with a daytime schedule and class offered to homeschooled families only. Here at IMA it is easy to learn and fun, making it perfect for children. But make no mistake; our students learn excellent self-defense skills starting with how to avoid confrontation and non-violent conflict resolution. For improving performance in sports and studies, or instilling virtues that society wants, IMA is the right choice for your child. This Class Program and Schedule has Limited Enrollment of 20 members, please call or request info online for available openings or waiting list options. If the current class offering is full, and a waiting list has started, once it exceeds 8 prospects an additional class schedule may be offered to accommodate the growing needs of our HomeSchool Community.
